The first of the 2020 presidential debates were held a few nights ago moderated by Chris Wallace of Fox News. I watched the entire thing live. It was a complete shitshow and everyone was saying as much. There was very little discussion of policy going forward and a lot of political theater. Trump continually interrupted Biden and even Wallace got pissed at one point, raising his voice. Apparently, the format will be changed going forward.

Probably the funniest part was the fact check down by the NY Times and subsequent meltdown in the comments. This regarded Biden's statement that Trump was given a booming economy that he then turned into a recession, both of which were false. The fact checkers probably just got tired at some point and said, fuck it, reality isn't here to stay. And who won the debate? The elites and whoever funded this horror show. Just cancel the debates and release the new slogan for 2020: Dear Voter, You're Fucked Either Way. Vote For Me! The Lesser of Two-Fuckers. You can't make this up folks.
